

MCE Donates Furniture To Baltimore Elementary School

As part of Governor Hogan's Maryland Unites Initiative, the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services helped Northwood Elementary School in northeast Baltimore prepare for the upcoming academic year. MCE was happy to help spruce up the reception area by donating two lounge chairs and a side table. In addition, several employees participated in the Department's book drive to help support and expand Northwood Elementary's library.